

The Attractive Man - 3 Key Behaviors that Attract Women by MAD DAWG (女性をひきつける3つの行動とは?)

IMPORTANT NOTE: Being an attractive man has NOTHING to do with looks, and EVERYTHING to do with how you behave and emotionally stimulate women.

Women are not visual creatures like men, but emotional.

The attractive man is attractive because of the way he makes them FEEL.

Women are biologically programmed to respond well to certain behaviors in men.

There are literally dozens of behaviors that will make you appear as an attractive man in the eyes of women.

However, there are three in particular that stand out as the most important.

1. The attractive man is the leader of men!

If you want to trigger the biological switch in a girl which is programmed to align with an alpha male, you will need to be the leader of men.

When you are in your group of friends, the attractive man leads the conversation and social interactions. He is decisive.

He doesn't wonder about what he will do next, or where she wants to sit in the restaurant, or what they should do that night, he already knows.

Obviously, do not go overboard with this.

Your friends and peers make you look more attractive by also being attractive themselves.

Don't be too eager to lead the conversation ALL THE TIME.

This WILL get annoying to people. Also, don't ALWAYS have to lead.

Allow friends to make decisions sometimes.

Realize that the attractive man would not engage in a conversation such as

"Where do you want to go to eat? Oh, I don't know what I want, what do you want?"

Oh, I'm not sure...hmm" Women hate that, and it is not attractive.

2. The attractive man is the protector of his loved ones!

As an attractive man, you are calm, cool and collected at all times.

But, if someone should threaten the safety or well being of someone you love, here comes the fierce punishment of an alpha male!!!

An attractive man would never sit by and watch a single person he cares about be mistreated or hurt in any way. Demonstrating this to a girl will make her instantly more attracted to you.

This doesn't mean go out and start a fight.
You can demonstrate this through a story or something that happened in your past.
Do not make this story sound like you are bragging
"Oh man I kicked the crap out of this guy!" will score you no points.

However, if you happen to talk about how someone made a comment to your sister, and you set him straight because nobody messes with your family or friends, that will get the point across. The attractive man doesn't mess around!

3. The attractive man is preselected by other women! If you are truly the attractive man, you are easily in the top 5% of society. This means that women will be intrigued by you and wanting to align with you. Many, many women. Demonstrating to a woman that you are preselected by other women will instantly make her more attracted to you.

Having a lot of girls who you are friends with is very helpful for this. Going out with a mixed group of girls and guys, or even just with girls, really helps achieve this.

If you don't happen to have a few girlfriends out with you that night, you can demonstrate this quality through story. Talk about your something interesting you did with your "friend" who happens to be Nicole or Amy or something.

Women will pick up on this subtlety and realize that you are a man who is used to having women in his life.

Women are very intuitive, and will pick up on all the social cues of all these behaviors.
They are so hard-wired to be perceptive to the behaviors of the attractive man, that they will find themselves uncontrollably attracted to you.

Have fun with the behaviors of the attractive man, and realize that these are things you will want to incorporate into your life if you haven't already.
Learning how to integrate these behaviors into your core is a whole different story.

That's when the REAL fun begins!

Knowing these behaviors alone will make it simple to be the attractive man.
